NEW ORLEANS, La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

LADIES OF THE CABINET.

Mrs. Harrison Will Head a Brilliant Receiving Line—No Members of New Cabinet Are Bachelors or Widowers, and All but Gen. Noble Have Families.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Mrs. Harrison will stand at the head of a brilliant a receiving line as Mrs. Cleveland. No members of the new Cabinet are widowers or bachelors. All but one, Gen. Noble, have families, and three, Messrs. Blaine, Windom, and Rusk, have lived in Washington before, and their wives understand all the ins and outs of official society. This Cabinet is better off in young people than the last, as nearly all these men have grown daughters. A party of gay young girls in the Cabinet circle will leaven its dignity and dullness.

Mrs. Blaine is well fitted to fill the position of wife of the Secretary of State, as she has knowledge acquired by over twenty years' residence in Washington. In appearance Mrs. Blaine is tall, well formed, with dark eyes and hair that is rapidly turning gray. Mrs. Blaine has had the widest opportunities for travel, and when interested she is a most agreeable talker, rivaling her husband in choice of words and eloquence. The home life of the Blaine family is exceptionally pleasant. There are six children—Walker, Emmons, Alice (who married Maj. Coppinger), Margaret, James G. Jr., and Harriet. Miss Margaret Blaine, who of the children resembles her distinguished father most, will assist Mrs. Blaine in her social duties. The youngest child was named after her mother, who was Harriet Stannard, of Augusta, Me.

Ex-Senator Windom succeeded Secretary Fairchild, and Mrs. Fairchild has a worthy successor in Mrs. Windom. Mrs. Windom was a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary, and after leaving school she taught in Mount Vernon, O. It was there she met Mr. Windom, who was then Prosecuting Attorney of the county. When a student she injured her eyesight by hard study and has worn eyeglasses ever since. This gives a slight haughtiness to her manner, although she is really the most gentle of women. As a girl Mrs. Windom was pretty, and she is still pleasing in form and face. Of medium height, she is quite slender. Her brown hair is turning gray, but to many this only makes her more beautiful. Mrs. Windom shows careful taste in dress, and while her home gowns are plain in society she is always an elegantly dressed woman. She has great tact in meeting people, for which she is pleasantly remembered in Washington, where she has spent so much of her life. Two daughters and a son will add to the attractiveness of this home. The eldest child, Miss Nellie, is 22, and has been in ill health for a year or two. She has a rare love for music, and has made it a special study, being well known as an amateur performer. She was a friend of Mrs. McKee when their fathers were both in public life at Washington. The younger daughter, Florence, will complete her course in Miss Porter's school this year, and will be a debutante of next season. She is a wonderfully pretty girl, and has the bright, vivacious ways that will make her a favorite in society.

SECRETARY TRACY'S FAMILY.

The Secretary of the Navy, General Tracy, will bring a cultured family to his new home. Mrs. Tracy is of the fair type of woman, rather plump, and of medium height. Her face has the same motherly sweetness as Mrs. Windom's. She dresses with an elegance and simplicity becoming her years. Known as a society leader in Brooklyn in her earlier days, she is better known now for her charities. Together with Mrs. S. V. White and the other charitable women of her city, she has fostered the Home for the Friendless, which is so widely known. Her maternal instinct is shown in her charities, nearly all of which are for the homeless little ones of the world. For years she has been identified with Plymouth Church. Gen. and Mrs. Tracy have two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Wilmerding, was immediately telegraphed to come to Washington on her father's selection for a Cabinet position. She was an interested spectator of the Senate scene at the inauguration. Mrs. Wilmerding is a widow, her husband, who was one of a well known New York family, dying a few years after their marriage. She has a daughter about 12 years old who will form one of the interesting group of children with which the Harrison Administration is blessed. Mrs. Wilmerding has taken her mother's place as a social leader in Brooklyn and will do the same in Washington. Of fine presence, she has much natural beauty, and she adds to it by her superb dressing. There will be no greater graced woman in the Cabinet circle. She has the vivacity and readiness which makes the successful social leader, and will always know what to do in a trying question of etiquette. Miss Tracy, the second daughter, is an artist first and after that a woman with all the charm that years of travel, and study, and mingling with the artist world give to a receptive nature. She has worked in the famous art galleries of Europe and has made figure painting her especial study. Since returning from Europe two years ago she has aided her sister in the hospitalities of their lovely home. Gen. Tracy will sell his Winter home in Brooklyn and bring all his household goods to Washington. He has a country home on the lakes noted for its fine stock farm. It is there the family will go after spending two months in Washington.

Mrs. Noble is an Eastern woman, although she has lived ever since her marriage in the West. She was the daughter of Dr. Halstead, of Northampton, Mass., and married General Noble in 1864. Her life has been saddened by the death of two children, and she has never taken any part in the social gayeties of St. Louis. She is a woman of intellect and is well known in literary circles at her home. Mrs. Noble is a deeply religious woman and is helpful to the poor. She has a refined nature, and her excellent breeding justifies her in aristocratic tendencies. Gen. and Mrs. Noble spend much of their time in travel and have been abroad several times.

Mrs. W. H. H. Miller has assisted Mrs. Harrison in her social duties since Gen. Harrison's election and is one of her trusted friends. She is of medium height, quite dark with black eyes and hair. In manner Mrs. Miller is direct and unaffected and dresses quite simply though with excellent taste. Her home is one of the pleasantest in Indianapolis. Mrs. Miller is always busy and is rarely seen without some bit of needlework in her hand. One daughter, Florence, entered society this Winter and was a great favorite at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Wanamaker is a Philadelphian like her husband, and it will be strange to identify her with any place but Philadelphia. Although Mrs. Wanamaker is quiet in her tastes and prefers home life she has made a large circle of friends. Her charities are unbounded and much of her husband's generosity can be traced to her influence. She has two sons and two daughters. The oldest son, who is a partner in his father's business, married Miss Minnie Walsh, daughter to a former Minister to England. It is this daughter-in-law who will assume many of the social duties of Mr. Wanamaker's home.

SECRETARY RUSK'S HOME.

There will be no more hospitable home in Washington than that of the Secretary of Agriculture. Mrs. Rusk is one of the best housewives in Wisconsin. She was born in Norway and has all the Norwegian thrift and love of home. She is tall and fair, with a face that is the index of the best nature in the world. Cheery in her home life, she has wide enough sympathies for the world, and the poor of Madison know her charity. The prophecy can be made that she will be one of the best liked of the Cabinet ladies. Secretary Rusk has been twice married. By his first wife he had two children, who were given the sterling names, Charity and Lydia. Both have been married. Mr. Rusk, Jr. is now a widower, as his wife died a few years ago. The children of the second marriage are Mary and Blaine, a young lad of 12, who was named after his father's life-long friend, James G. Blaine. Miss Mary Rusk has a reputation for repartee as well as for beauty. She is quite dark, graciously formed, and with flashing eyes that are not soon forgotten.

Pleasant families seem to be the order with the members of the Harrison Cabinet, and Gov. Proctor, the Secretary of War, has an especially charming one. Mrs. Proctor was one of the well known Dutton family, of Vermont, who was settled in early days in a place to which they gave the name of Duttonsville. They have been identified with Vermont politically, socially, and in a business way for several generations. Mrs. Proctor, like her husband, is of Puritan blood. They have several children who will serve to brighten their home.

Getting Grumpy.

The Ohio people are getting to be very grumpy, ditto Illinois, ditto Iowa, ditto several other States. The great Buckeye State, the mother of this and so many more Presidents, the mother of four members of the Cabinet and numberless great men, has not been at all backward about coming forward, and presents even more candidates for the offices than Indiana, which is saying a good deal. There are exactly five citizens of Ohio who want to be Commissioner of Pensions, five who want to be Commissioner of Indian Affairs, seven who want to be Commissioner of Education, four who would accept the Assistant Secretary's portfolio, three who seek to be Commissioner of Patents, three who would like to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue, two who ask the office of Solicitor General, and an equal number after all the other offices.

NEVADA OFFICE SEEKERS.

List of Those Who Desire Federal Position.

A Washington dispatch to the San Francisco Examiner gives the following names of Nevadans who are applicants for Federal positions:

Ex-Congressman Thomas W. Wren would like the Commissionership of the General Land Office.

There are three candidates for the office of United States District Attorney, J. W. Whitcher and Chas. E. Mack, of Virginia, and W. M. Boardman, of Reno. Mr. Mack, it is said, has the lead.

Samuel Ruse, of Winnemucca, it is thought, will certainly be appointed U. S. Marshal.

George F. Tutritin and E. F. Leete are candidates for Surveyor General, and it is believed the office will go to Tutritin.

For Superintendent of the Mint at Carson City S. C. Wright will have no opposition.

A pretty fight is being waged in Reno for the Postmastership of that place between local faction headed respectively by H. P. Kraus and N. W. Roff.

BUSTS OF VICE-PRESIDENTS.

Several years ago the Senate by resolution authorizing the purchase of busts of all the Vice-Presidents of the United States who have presided over the United States Senate since the foundation of the Government. These busts are to be placed in the various niches in and about the Senate Chamber.

There were three Vice-Presidents living at that time—Hamlin, Wheeler, and Arthur—and steps were taken to secure busts while they yet lived. At the same time contracts were entered into for the purchase of busts of the earlier Vice-Presidents. The first to come to hand is that of Thomas Jefferson. This was received at the Capitol a few days ago.

It is made of white marble and is of heroic size. Its exact location has not yet been determined upon.

Russell B. Harrison, son of the President, has purchased an interest in Frank Leslie's Weekly, from W. J. Arkell, of Judge.

The present heavy snowfall in the Sierras has allayed all apprehension of a curtailment of the billion yield of Comstock ore producing mines, through lack of crushing facilities, at an earlier date than usual the coming Summer, thus removing what has been cited as the principal factor in producing the long continued era of depression in mining share trading.

ADVICE TO SECRETARIES.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-1871.

COAL, COAL, COAL.

Pleasant Valley coal is the best and cheapest fuel in the market. 3 tons of P. V. coal equals five tons Rocky Mountain coal, by actual test. No slate or clinkers. One ton P. V. coal equals 3 cords common pine wood. Give it a trial and be convinced. Leave orders with or enquire of H. Sample, Depot Hotel or coal house, or at Nasby's, or of Phil Alliger, the drayman.

WHAT ON EARTH?

Is the reason people will not, or do not, see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as B. G. G. BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you a dollar.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.
